

Positive Program Planning and Effective Negotiation

Offered by the Disparity Task Force of State Council on Developmental Disabilities, Central Coast Office

Too often families and individuals with developmental disabilities leave their planning meetings, whether they be with the school district or regional center, frustrated and confused. They are uncomfortable with how the planning meeting went and are uncertain if the services they will receive are the services they requested and if they are the appropriate services. Along with knowing what to ask, knowing how is equally important.

Join us for a unique bi-lingual presentation on this important skill. Build confidence as an advocate!
